586-10th STREET
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

April 18th, 1943

Mrs. Effa Manley
Newark Eagles
Newark, N. J.

Dear Mrs. Manley:

I have your letter confirming the game at Miller Stadium, 57th and Jackson Streets, West New York, N. J., with the Jersey Dodgers on SUNDAY, APRIL 18th, 1943.

The Newark Eagles will receive a guarantee of $125.00 with an option of 40% of the gross receipts, less federal taxes, for playing the game.

I most certainly will contact you at the Trenton telephone number if the weather is bad on the morning of the 18th. If you arrive in West New York with the "Eagles" and the weather prevents us from playing the game, the West New York operators will pay you a rain guarantee of not less than $25.00.

The contest will start at 2:30 p.m. sharp as you requested.

Trusting we will have good baseball weather and looking forward to meeting you personally. I am

Yours very truly,

A. B. Karam
